Vol. 1, No. 20

GRANT TO GSU ...The National Endowment for the Arts has awarded the Board of Governors $1500 for a Governors State program. The matching grant will be used by CCS for an artists and lecturers in residence program. Sculptors, historians, painters, printmakers and a ceramist will demonstrate studio practices in addition to lecturing.

GSU CHILDREN'S THEATER...The first public studio program of the GSU Children's Theater will be Saturday, February 26. Children in grades one through three will perform at 11 a.m. in the performing arts room of the College of Cultural Studies. Included in the free program are a poem, story, and song by the children. They will pantomime the poem, "Isobel," by Ogden Nash. The story, "Abeyoyo," will be performed to a recording by folk-singer Pete Seeger. The song will be "Sweepy, Sweepy, Sweepy."

ERIC CLINIC TUESDAY: Dr. Joost Yff, Assistant Director of the ERIC Clearing House on Teacher Education in Washington, D.C. will conduct a clinic for GSU faculty and graduate students and junior college personnel in the LRC Tuesday at 3:30p.m. ERIC is an acronym for Educational Resources Information Center and is supported by the U.S. Office of Education. Twenty decentralized ERIC Clearinghouses, each specializing in a major educational field or topic provide quick access to literature reported by thousands of individuals and groups, colleges and universities, and state, local and federal agencies...GSU has a complete file of 50,000 ERIC documents on microfiche (sheets of microfilm)...one 4 x 6 card can contain up to 72 pages of text.

ACRONYM OF THE WEEK(From Behavior Today): "The term SWAG is catching on fast at NIMH [National Institute of Mental Health], especially among budget officers. Stands for Scientific Wild-Ass Guess, as in I'll take a SWAG at it."

REGISTERED? February 21 is the last day to register to vote in the March 21 primary.

IT'S ONLY MONEY...All GSU staff should file new W-4 forms now available in the GSU Personnel Office. If you do not claim the new "special withholding allowance", you may have more than the correct amount withheld from your pay check. The changes in the withholding system which makes it necessary for you to file a new W-4 form were created by the Revenue Act of 1971.

COME BLOW YOUR HORN GABRIEL...The GSU jazz band is looking for trumpet players. Contact Warrick Carter in CCS. The jazz band practices in the Planning Building Wednesdays from 7:30p.m. to 9:30p.m. The band now includes five saxophones, four trombones, two trumpets, piano, guitar and drums. Any room for a Kazoo Warrick?
